

Kathryn Campbell is a Foundation Governor and Chair of Governors. She is a dual qualified lawyer with law degrees from Rutgers in the US and Oxford in the UK. She was a Partner of an international law firm and is now Of Counsel with them. During her career she advised international companies and governments on finance transactions and regulatory compliance. She is a member of a United Nations expert group which works to further the UN's sustainable development goals in the area of resource management. Kathryn has been part of the Islip community for over 30 years and is committed to supporting Dr South's School in providing an exceptional and nurturing place of learning.